Objectives: 1) To become familiar with worldwide literature supporting the safety, efficacy, and cost savings of outpatient TIA assessment. 2) To understand validated grading scales for identifying a TIA vs mimics, and scales for assessing the short term risk of a stroke following a first TIA. 3) To review the successes and challenges in setting up and running a TIA clinic.